Policy number	GENPO05	Version	2.1
Drafted by	Sally Wynd	Approved by Board on	28/3/2018
Responsible person	Service Manager	Scheduled review date	28/3/2019

Introduction

Eagles RAPS Inc. endorses diversity, supports equal rights, and does not advocate, support or practice discrimination based on race, religion, age, national origin, language, sex, sexual orientation, or mental or physical handicap, whether covered by applicable legislation or not, except where affirmative action may be required to redress individual or social handicaps of people from disadvantaged groups.

Purpose

This document sets out

- Eagles RAPS Inc.'s policy against such discrimination;
- The governance structures, responsibilities and processes that have been established to give effect to that policy.

Policy

Eagles RAPS Inc. does not advocate, support or practice discrimination based on race, religion, age, national origin, language, sex, sexual orientation, or mental or physical handicap or any other personal attribute protected by law, except where affirmative action may be required to redress individual or social handicaps. Eagles RAPS Inc. will make all reasonable accommodations to allow people who experience difficulties in their dealings with the organisation to benefit equally from its work.

Procedure

Procedure number	GENPR05	Version	2.1
Drafted by	Sally Wynd	Approved by CEO on	28/3/2018
Responsible person	Service Manager	Scheduled review date	28/3/2019

Responsibilities

The Management Committee will:

- Regularly review the leadership and commitment given to eliminating discrimination through active promotion of the organisation's Anti-Discrimination Policy.

The Service Manager will:

- Ensure that:
 - the organisation's practices and processes incorporate precautions against discrimination in such areas as hiring, client selection, and program delivery;
 - Reasonable accommodations are made to allow diverse groups to access benefits provided by the organisation;
 - Where appropriate, weight is given to the culture and experiences of individuals from disadvantaged groups.
- Where appropriate, delegate responsibility for compliance to officers with responsibility for particular sections;
- Oversee the performance of subordinate officers in these matters;
- Review and report to the Management Committee, as appropriate, on the effectiveness of the management systems established to remove discrimination;
- Analyse material breaches and identified compliance system weaknesses for systematic trends and ensure that any adverse trends are addressed;
- Promote a culture of effective policy compliance across the organisation.

All staff and volunteers at all levels will:

- Ensure that they are aware of the organisation's policy against discrimination;
- Not act in a manner that would be considered to be discriminatory pursuant to this policy or any applicable legislation;
- Where appropriate, suggest ways in which practices, systems and procedures could be improved so as to reduce the likelihood of discrimination occurring.

Processes

The Service Manager will initially review the organisation's procedures in all areas to ensure that these are in accordance with the principles expressed in this policy, and will report to the Management Committee on this matter.

The Service Manager will review any changes to the organisation's procedures in all areas to ensure that these are in accordance with the principles expressed in this policy.

Staff and volunteers will follow these procedures.
